1. Reading of the summary document

DONE: The team changed the orientation of the project. Now, instead of to focus in each way, the team will focus in make the application oriented in the business world. We think that can be great and effective for try to win the SCORE competition and to make more differences from Doodle.

DONE: The documents draft has been uploaded, as the Requirements Doc, Project plan, etc..

DONE: The product owner contacted the customer, getting new information and specifications.

TO DO: We have to finish the UML, the new mockups, and make a draft of the presentation for next Monday.

CONCLUSION: The team has worked in their parts, so the process is good, we just have to focus in the next documents to submit soon.

2. Next Steps:

Everyone should put the new requirements after the change-vision of the project, because as we said, now is oriented to the business world. As well, we have to define the roles and make the presentation for the next Tuesday, as finish the documents for the next Friday.
